Aims and objectives

FMC Marketing Limited aims to provide a high quality, Internet healthcare service which includes confidential on-line health assessments with a medical practitioner and the private prescribing of medicines.

FMC Marketing's key objective is to provide an online, readily accessible, individualised patient-centred healthcare service, based on the highest standards of research and best practice which meets and exceeds individual expectations whilst complying with the current regulations of the Care Quality Commission (Registration) Regulations 2009 and the fundamental standards and regulations of the Health and Social Care Act 2008 (Regulated Activities) Regulations 2014.

Kinds of services provided by FMC Marketing

FMC Marketing provides online Internet healthcare services in the form of the following regulated activity:

- Treatment of disease, disorder or injury

This includes private and confidential online health consultations with a medical practitioner via the Internet, the provision of individual health advice and the issuing of private prescriptions for medication. Medicines are prescribed in relation to the treatment of impotence, hair loss, weight loss, influenza, smoking cessation, raised cholesterol, travellers' diarrhoea, jetlag, malaria, premature ejaculation, acne and eczema, asthma, urinary infections, diabetes, hay fever, hypertension, irregular periods, unwanted facial hair, contraception, and treatments and tests in relation to sexually transmitted diseases.

All private prescriptions are sent to a Royal Pharmaceutical Society registered pharmacy for dispensing.

FMC Marketing also co-authors Patient Group Directions (PGDs) for use by healthcare professionals. Following training and assessment, this service allows authorised healthcare professionals to supply and administer certain medications to patients without a prescription.
